

STEVE COOK

SME: OUTLAW MOTORCYCLE GANGS

Steve Cook is a Detective with a Law Enforcement agency in the Kansas City Metropolitan area and has over 30 years of Law Enforcement experience.

Steve is considered an international expert in the area of Outlaw Motorcycle Gangs and is frequently called upon by media outlets in the US and abroad to be interviewed about on-going activities and trends relating to Outlaw Motorcycle Gangs.

Steve is a sought-after expert witness and consultant and his services have been retained in several criminal and civil matters all over the country and Steve provides Outlaw Motorcycle Gang training to Law Enforcement all over the country.

In addition, Steve has worked Outlaw Motorcycle Gangs in traditional Law Enforcement capacities as well as in an undercover capacity and has successfully prosecuted members of several international OMG's in state and federal courts for firearms, kidnapping, aggravated assaults and methamphetamine related investigations in addition to working several patched members of different motorcycle gangs as sources.

Steve's knowledge of these types of investigations led to him being sent by the Department of Justice to Kosovo to train Judges and Prosecutors about how Covert Operations work.

Steve has been featured three times on the History Channel's Gangland program, on the Biography Program Gangworld One Percenters, twice on the Biography Program Gangsters "America's Most Evil", History Channels "Book of Secrets", American Heroes Channel "Codes and Conspiracies-Outlaw Bikers", Escape Networks "Deep Undercover", WGN America's "Outlaw Country" and has been featured in a French documentary on the Hells Angels and Bandidos war in Europe.

He has also been interviewed on The O'Reilly Factor, Inside Edition, Erin Burnett "OutFront", NPR and Don Lemon Tonight and used as a consulting Producer on shows like Operation Undercover on Investigation Discovery.

